Customer Reviews

Easy reader with english and spanish on the same page. Reminded me how many spanish words I knew, but did not know the spelling. A delight I will share with my teenage friends in Baja who want to learn english! This Grama loved it and have moved on to other books of this type on and a whole new window to spanish learning, I will be a teenager in spanish soon!

Great addition to beginner library of Spanish "start books: My kids enjoy them and they become more fluent and more excited each them they read it. It really boost their confidence! We HS 3 & 4th grade.

I was a bit disappointed with this book. It is only eight pages of story with big text and the rest of the book teaches you how to do a paper bookmark of an ant (which I didn't think was very creative). I was hoping the book would help me with my efforts of teaching my kids Spanish, but the book is so short in story line that it doesn't engage my kids at all. And if you are thinking it will cover the days of the week, it doesn't. It's just about a sad ant that thinks nobody remembered his birthday.

A great basic bilingual book with colorful drawings and useful phrases.

A little smaller in size than expected, but that was ok with me. Loved the fact it's in English & right underneath Spanish on each page. My 3yr old likes it.

I thought this will teach the days of the week but the story is very small, nothing to teach and full of useless pages. No one is really going to build a book marker out of plain paper. It's too thin for it. Disappointing.

Awesome and in great condition! Excellent for those that are transitioning from one language to the next!

Nice book for the price, perfect for children that need to practice reading.
