The White Horse (Sally (Bethlehem Books))

Synopsis

Elizabeth Coatsworth After one adventurous, but fairly safe voyage, Aunt Nannie reluctantly allows Sally to sail away again, this time into the Mediterranean Sea and right into the clutches of the Barbary Coast pirates. Taken captive, Sally is exposed to a way of life very different from the protected one she has known. Her resiliency as well as her courage and love are sorely tried; however, both she and those she encounters in the Sultan's palace will never be quite the same for her stay there. The fourth book in the Sally Series. Illustrated by Helen Sewell

Customer Reviews

Bought these books in addition to series and my kids love these stories. Great for homeschooling families and book reports.
