Customer Reviews

Black Cat & White Cat is a nice sized board book meant for those younger kids that are still a bit rough on their books. Board books are nice, they hold up to a lot. Black Cat & White Cat is about, you guessed it, a black cat and a white cat. The black cat lives in a white world, and the white cat lives in a black world. They want to play with each other, but every time one tries to visit the other, one of them disappears! The artistry in this book is very simple. It is in black and white, so it is a really good book for younger kids/babies that like to look at contrast and having them do so even helps develop their vision! However, I feel that there is an underlying message to this story. An important one... but I think it will get lost on the littles. You can always use it to open up a discussion with them, but depending on the age, it still may be quite a bit over their heads. This review is based on a copy provided by the publisher in exchange for a fair and honest review. Find more of my reviews here:(...)

Great board book for babies with the black and white images and has a lot of appeal for toddlers in the story. Cute book about coming together despite differences but still simple enough for the youngest readers. Recommended from a children's librarian.
