The Orphan's Amish Teacher (Amish Romance)

Synopsis

DOWNLOAD FOR FREE WITH KINDLE UNLIMITED Susan King has always had a fascination with the Englischers, much to her parents disapproval. As a teacher in the Amish school house, she has found she loves working with kinner. When she stumbles across an orphanage in need of volunteers, and meets the handsome Ralph, she finds herself behaving in a way that would make her parents unhappy. She quickly develops feelings for Ralph, but then is stunned to find out he has a girlfriend. A very beautiful and but very unkind girlfriend. Susan tries her best to be considerate, and feels all is lost, until the girlfriend invites her to her birthday party. Ralph urges her to attend and she finds herself once again sneaking off to be with the Englisch. Will she compromise everything she believes in the pursuit of love? Or will Susan come to terms with where she belongs and trust Gott to bring her love when the timing is right? A charming, clean and wholesome new Amish romance story from Hannah Schrock, full of joy and heartache, but does it have a happy ending?

Customer Reviews

SUSAN KING enjoys teaching the children in her community. The bag she carries her books in is a hand me down from many other teachers and one day it broke and sent her into town to find a replacement. This trip into town changed her whole life. She found herself volunteering at a home for young orphans and enjoys being there every Saturday. It was Ralph who she met in front of the building who took her in to look around that got her started and she liked being able to talk with him and found out that his grandfather founded the home. You will enjoy this story in am sure.

Another great book by Hannah Schrock. Susan is an excellent Amish teacher, who is loved by her students. She is very curious about the Englishe Orphanage. She could not imagine why anyone would give up their family, especially innocent children. She meets a nice young Englisher, Ralph. She finds herself having feelings and in situations she hadn't bargained for.

I haven't read it yet but I love the Amish stories and I probably already bought it on my Fire Kindle.....
